ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES

With 20 years of experience in the insurance industry, Scott serves as Brown & Brown's National Casualty Practice Leader. He leads the brokerage and service teams responsible for designing, marketing, servicing and coordinating all casualty programs for Brown & Brown Risk Solutions customers.

Scott has worked with customers in a variety of industries including manufacturing, retail, real estate, distribution/transportation, hospitality and entertainment. He focuses on customers' universal need for complex program design, which can require the coordination of service team structures across multiple offices.

Scott earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Risk Management and Insurance from the University of Georgia. He serves on various broker advisory boards with our leading insurance carrier partners.
