

Tom Rodriguez
Regional Recovery Coordinator
Occupational Care & Recovery

Tom Rodriguez has been in the insurance field since graduation from Mercy College in 1982 with a degree in Public Safety and Criminal Justice. He worked in the General Liability departments at Crum and Forster and Chubb, before joining the claim department at Rollins Burdick Hunter brokerage firm in 1988. In 1992 he moved to the employer side of the business, joining Champion International, a paper manufacturing company based in Stamford, CT. He was one of three Workers' Compensation Regional Managers. When International Paper purchased Champion in 2001, Tom and his family moved to Memphis and he continued in the Workers' Compensation group. June will mark 32 years working for Champion/International Paper within the Work Comp/Occupational Care and Recovery Group, ensuring the care and recovery of International Paper employees injured on the job. Tom currently serves on the Client Advisory Board of ALFA International, a global legal network consisting of over 140 independent law firms around the world. In his spare time Tom enjoys spending time with his grandchildren, Andrew (4 yrs. old) and Samantha (1 yr. old).
